Beauty news

Tips, star secrets and the best new products around...

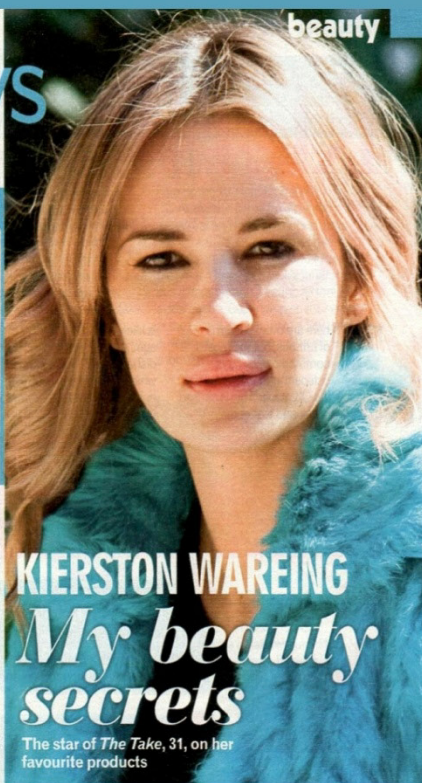

My best beauty bargain is... Anne French. It's an old-fashioned skincare brand that's been going for years - I got it at the chemist. It's very cheap. The Deep Cleansing Milk, £2.50, is just great.

My beauty essential is... regular shampoo for brown hair. I'm normally blonde but I did a vegetable dye to get it into better condition, so now it's brown. I also love Batiste Dry Shampoo, £1.95, because you never know when you'll need some.

I keep my skin looking young with... regular facials. I have one a month and at home I love Karin Herzog Essential Face Masks, £48. I'm bad at taking my make-up off though. I find if I sleep in it, sometimes it looks better the next day.

I splurge on... Benefit beauty goodies. I've been into make-up since I was a kid trying to look like Madonna in the Like A Prayer video. My fave is the Lip Plump, £14.25 (at asos.com). It does make a difference.

I'm a fake tanner not real tanner... I tried a St Tropez Spray Tan, £15. The other day and was very pleased. It's a great natural colour. I'd rather be white than orange.
